

A Family Centered Approach to Developing Quality Outcomes

March 2011 Training

Questions VALLEY Will Ask Families to Develop Good Outcomes

How would you describe your day?

What does that look like? (i.e., when talking about a specific routine or activity.)

What do you (family) and your child like to play with?

What dreams do you have?

Tell me about routines (bath time, meals, etc.)

What is the best part of the day?
What goes well?

What is stressful about your day?

What do you enjoy doing together/favorite activity?

Who does your child like to be with?

Tell me a little about your child.

What makes your child laugh?

What is your day like?
How do you do _____?

What would make your life easier?

What frustrates you or your child?

What do you enjoy doing as a whole family?

What do you like to do for fun?