

A Family Centered Approach to Developing Quality Outcomes
November 2011 Training
Questions Roanoke Will Ask Families to Develop Good Outcomes

What language do you speak in your home?

What are your dreams/expectations for your child?

Is there anything we haven't covered that you would like for us to know about your child?

Describe your child's personality.

Who are the other caregivers for your child, or who does the child seem comfortable with?

Does he/she have the opportunity to play with other children?

Tell me about your family and child.

What is the biggest thing you and your child are struggling with?

How does your child react in a new situation?

If I wasn't here what would you be doing now?

How does your child move throughout her/his environment?

What types of activities/things do you do in the community with your child?

How does he/she let you know his/her wants and needs?

What is your favorite part of the day with your child? What is the most difficult time?

What has been challenging for you in the last couple weeks?

When does your child have the most temper tantrums?