

November CSPD TA Update

Comprehensive System of Personnel Development (CSPD) Update

The Integrated Training Collaborative coordinates Virginia's professional development system for early interventionists who provide supports and services to eligible children and families under Part C of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA).

Kaleidoscope Training

Data are currently being collected regarding all certified EI TCM/SC providers to determine which localities still have service coordinators in need of KI and KII. The next trainings will be in the months indicated below with dates and locations to be determined soon:

- March 2012 KI
- April 2012 KII
- June 2012 KI (only if data supports the need for additional training)

Outcomes Training

A special thank you to our colleagues in Abingdon and Roanoke for welcoming us for training on “A Family-Centered Approach to Developing Quality Outcomes” on November 7th and 8th. We had great turn outs for both events, training over 160 providers and service coordinators. We are also very appreciative of the collaboration and support from the VT T/TAC. For more information or to schedule an Outcomes training in your location, please contact Cori Hill (cfhill@vcu.edu) to learn more.

Quik Reference Guides

Speaking of outcomes, does your system need more copies of the “Writing Good Outcomes” Quik Reference laminated cards? If so, please contact Deana Buck at dmbuck@vcu.edu or (804)827-0198. Supplies are limited.

Also NOW AVAILABLE: Quik Reference laminated cards on “Asking Good Questions with Families.” Participants who attend the Outcomes training in November will receive copies. If you are not in the Roanoke or SW regions and you are interested in receiving copies of this laminated tool for your region, please ask your LSM to order copies in bulk from Deana Buck at the number/email above.

Source: Council for Exceptional Children, Division for Early Childhood, and the Infant Toddler Coordinators Association - October 17, 2011
To help special educators and early interventionists understand and implement the recently released and updated IDEA Part C regulations, the Council for Exceptional Children (CEC), its Division for Early Childhood (DEC) and the IDEA Infant Toddler Coordinators Association (ITCA) have released a side-by-side comparison of the 2011 final Part C regulations, published on Sept. 28, 2011, to the 1999 Part C regulations. It is available for downloading in its entirety or by subparts at http://dec-sped.org/PolicyAdvocacy/IDEA\_Part\_C\_Changes

ITCA is also developing topical side-by-side charts comparing the 2011 final Part C regulations with the 1999 regulations by topic. These side-by-sides are being published online as they become available at <http://www.ideainfanttoddler.org/regulations.htm>
- ✓ "Tele-Intervention" - Bringing Specialized Services to Families of Young Children with Hearing Loss
Source: National Center for Hearing Assessment and Management - Retrieved October 17, 2011
Tele-intervention (TI) is a growing method for bringing specialized services to families of young children with hearing loss. The National Center for Hearing Assessment and Management (NCHAM) has recently released a new Tele-Intervention Resource Guide (October 2011), which reflects the pioneer efforts of six EI programs from across the country. It highlights recommended practices for conducting TI sessions and includes

- information about technology considerations, licensure and reimbursement, and how to ensure privacy and security. Information about a learning community of TI providers is also provided. To learn more, go to <http://www.infanthearing.org/ti-guide>
- ✓ ZERO TO THREE's podcast series, Little Kids, Big Questions, addresses some of the most common (and challenging) issues facing parents of babies and toddlers, such as: helping a baby learn to sleep through the night; dealing with a picky eater; and learning to set limits on children's behavior. These questions—and more—are covered in this series of 12 podcasts, hosted by Ann Pleshette Murphy, a past contributor to ABC's Good Morning America Parenting Segment and author of several parenting books. Each podcast features an interview with an expert that focuses on how to apply the research of early childhood development to your daily interactions with your baby or toddler.
